Commissioner

O P I N I O N

These are appeals pursuant to Section 25 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act (Chap. 13, Stats, 1929) from the action of the Franchise Tax Commissioner in overruling the 'protests of Universal Pictures Corporation, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Distributing Corporation, Jack White Comedy Corporation, Lloyd Hamilton Corporation and Lupino Lane Comedy Corporation, to his proposed assessment of additional taxes against them based upon the inclusion in their taxable net income of amounts received from tax exempt sources (principally from copyrights upon motion pictures). As the point involved in all of the appeals is practically identical and as the Appellants are represented by the same counsel upon stipulation of the parties the Board has considered the proceedings as a consolidated appeal.

Counsel for Appellants has argued with much earnestness and persuasiveness that the inclusion of income from exempt sources in the tax base is prohibited by the Constitution of the United States. The authorities cited to this effect are convincing but for the reasons stated in our opinion in the case of Vortex Manufacturing Company (filed August 4, 1930), we do not feel warranted in holding that the law is unconstitutional. Upon authority of our decision in that appeal, we believe that we must sustain the action of the Commissioner.
